TO : General Counsel

SUBJECT : Collection of Materials for the John F. Kennedy Library

REFERENCE:

The General Counsel is charged with the responsibility for representing the Agency in regard to the collection of materials for the John F. Kennedy Library. The General Counsel will work with the coordinating committee which has been appointed for this purpose and will insure both that the materials appropriate for the library are made available to it, and that those materials which for security considerations must be withheld are properly protected. General Counsel will coordinate his activities with the appropriate units of the Agency.
